the Sanskrit College there

As regards this year's Ramayana

They all request that the period a reasonable request worthy of favourable consideration and in the case of Hannan Nemejahna

As the matter is one of urgency, I take the liberty of

The Conference will be composed of persons specially invited for the purpose by the Working Committee Certain English knowing gentlemen have been specially requested to attend and assist the Pandits in regulating their proceedings

Rao Bahadur Professor M Rungacharlar will preside at the sittings of the Conference and have a casting vote in cases where the Conference is equally divided

The resolutions of the Conference will be published along with the reasons and the authorities by which they are sup ported In cases where the resolutions are not unanimous the minority may send their opinions in writing for inclusion in the published proceedings

It has been decided tha the Pandits specially invited to the Conference should be paid their travelling and other expenses

It is expected that during the Conference and a few days before and after about three hundred Brahmans of different sects will have to be fed The housing of the Pandits printing and other incidental expenses will add considerably to the necessary outlay
